F. Before attending the camp, it is highly recommended that you read Philip Hallie's book, Lest Innocent Blood Be Shed (Harper & Row New York 1979). You can obtain it through your local library. It is also available on the Amazon.com website. It is the story of one town's fight against oppression during the wartime occupation of France. The faith, courage, and ideals that fueled that fight gave rise to a school, the College Cevenol, which has stood as a symbol of international understanding and cooperation ever since. Many of the people in Le Chambon today were alive during those times of oppression and conviction. The story behind Cevenol and Le Chambon is what distinguishes this Workcamp from any other in the world. The book is easy reading, and shouldn't take you more than an afternoon.

PLEASE SCAN AND EMAIL BOTH PAGES OF THE COMPLETE APPLICATION AND RETURN TO ME. YOU MUST ALSO EMAIL A DIGITAL PHOTOGRAPH OF YOURSELF FOR IDENTIFICATION. YOUR APPLICATION WILL NOT BE PROCESSED WITHOUT IT.
