

Bibliography:
The Collège Cévenol and Le Chambon-sur-Lignon

This bibliography provides a basic listing of titles on the Collège Cévenol and its many links to resistance and rescue efforts on the Plateau Vivarais-Lignon during the Second World War. It does not constitute an exhaustive bibliography on Chambon or resistance activity on the Plateau; many other titles explore these topics and are cited in the volumes published by the Société de l'Histoire de la Montagne and by historian Gérard Bollon, among others. It does, however, provide essential historical sources and scholarly discussions on the Collège and its part in the history of Chambon; a list of the numerous memoirs and young-adult titles that have developed around these topics; a list of films and documentaries; and notable unpublished materials concerning the Collège and its founders.

Special thanks are due to Gérard Bollon and Guylaine Carrot for their help in compiling the bibliography.

IV. Unpublished Manuscripts and Papers

Note on Alexander Grothendieck and the Collège Cévenol: Grothendieck wrote two long, unfinished manuscript memoir-reflections which circulated in typescript photocopies for many years and are now available on the Internet. He discusses his time at the Collège briefly in both of these texts. For web files of both typescripts, see:
